

BEST ENTRY of ALL in CHLOE'S COLUMNS' COMPETITION:

WINNER:

Thea Haynes aged 5 from Class RL at St. Mary's C of E School on Fairford Leys

Flower-pot decorated with extracts from the Bucks Herald, with the Dinton column at the top and stickers with pets and an added bonus of being the lightest to carry.

Selection of flower pots:

Other Prize Winners:

Bottle of Moët donated by Joanne at the Bugle Horn at Hartwell: Chris Blumer from Cuddington

An enormous basket of goodies donated by Denise, the Hairdresser in Cuddington: Heather Billingham from Stone

Hamper donated by Stone Co-op: The Kitchen Family from Stone

Julius Dance Machine donated by Jason Aldous of Bishopstone: Ella Pickwick via her grandmother who lives in Stone

Aga Trivet donated by Aga, Telford, Shropshire: Catrin Clacy from Bishopstone

Voucher donated by The Crown at Cuddington: Sue Wilde from Stone

Voucher donated by The Bottle & Glass, Gibraltar: Haroon Maan from Stone

Voucher donated by The Nag's Head, Great Missenden: Chris Dodsworth from Bishopstone

Voucher donated by Seven Stars, Dinton: Michele Bale of Bishopstone

Voucher for Hartwell Nurseries donated by Chloe Lambert: Tony and Shirley Lisk from Stone

Sewing-box donated by Greens Furnishings, Thame: Carol Lynch from Dinton

Toys donated by Tesco, Broadfields and The Co-op on Fairford Leys: Rebekah Green, Elly Baldwin and Thomas Baldwin, pupils at St. Mary's C of E School, Fairford Leys

A mini motorbike donated by Tesco, Broadfields: Lorraine Gooch of Westlington for her grandchildren

Specialist ales donated by Vale Brewery, Brill: James at Hartwell Nurseries

Tubes of toothpaste and children's toothpaste donated by Aylesbury Dental Healthcare and bouncy balls donated by Tesco, Broadfields were given to schoolchildren who attended a Bucks Cricket day for schools at Dinton Cricket Club and also to adults who have shown interest in playing cricket for Dinton Cricket Club or in the village columns in the Bucks Herald.

During 2016, money has so far been raised from Chloe's Columns' Competition for

Bishopstone Village Hall

Relate MTB

Aylesbury Talking Newspaper

Alzheimer's Society

Dinton Cricket Club

Chloe's Breast Cancer Charity Fund.