

Remembrance
Sunday for the Centenary Commemoration of
WWI
9th November
2014.

1st Dinton Guides were asked to write the name of a member of their family or community, who served in WWI, in the centre of their poppy. As an act of remembrance our Guide's poppies were displayed on a cross in St John's Church, Stone.